MULLIGANS MAY CLASH OVER SONG

Foley Predicts "War" if Irish Are Not Given Preference Over "Wops."

Oh! The shades of Harrigan and Hart, Dave Braham, Widdy Dunn, Mater Gilfeether and the rest.

From Jackson street way over to Avenue A, With fife and drum did sweetly, sweetly play,

In the march, march of the Mulligan Guards. "Larry" Mulligan, of the Bowery, lay's claim to kinship to the Mulligan whom Harrigan made famous la song on the stage. Being a half-brother of "is g Tim" Sullivan, "Larry" has been known to lay claim even to the standpipes leading to the cellar of an underground emporium. But the Alderman can tell you more about that varn, and "Pica Tim" repudiates the Mulligan Bill accestry. There may be a rea-dawn ere's a Mulligan ball coming. post shay, List night at the Lawrence fell Association on the Bowery-

"Say," said Teddy Foley to Tommy Dinnean, in an aside, "are the wops going to get that off at the ball?"
"Sure!" said Dinnean.
"Well," said Foley, "Charlie Culkins's Irish Jeffersonians from the west sile have been priming themselves with that Muillight guards thong for the bail for a week, and if there's auny race that can sing it right it's the Irish."
"Well, Larry stys let them both sing it and march it, and do as they like with it," replied Dinnean.
It "Well, if the wops and the Irish from Culkins's district clash on that song there'll be sometong doing at the Larry there'll be sometoing doing at the Larry Mulligan ball, and that's all I've got to say," said Foley.

"What'll be doing?" askel Tommy.
"There'll be your with this W. and even President Rossevelt wouldn't wan that," answered Foley.

Distinctive Apparel for Men

Spring Suits and Topcoats

Ready for Service

Our peculiarly independent position, maintaining, as we do, a perfect organization of trained designers and skilled tailormen, lifts our productions above and beyond the narrow restrictions of the customary methods of trade.

Each separate garment which bears the Saks label presents the embodiment of distinction obtainable only through originality and creative genius, fostered by persistent and continuous

> We do not deem it expedient to tell too frankly the constituent features of novelty in the new garments. Rather would we have you accept this as a personal invitation to view them.

This much we may venture—there is more than ever before breadth of chest to our coats-a result successfully attained without "building up" the shoulders.

The Children's Shop SECON FLOOR

Beyond the matter of quality—an attribute we would have you associate with all that our establishment carries-our chief end and aim in the Children's Shop, has been to make it complete.

We use the word with no reservation—there is nothing lacking to make this department a haven of helpfulness and economy for the mother.

On a single floor-and that too, in condensed area-may be found every requisite of dress for boy, girl or infant.

Shoes for Children

Especial attention is given to the careful fitting of chi dren's shoes. We understand the full importance of providing sensible footwear for growing feet and expert salespeople render every assistance in selection.

All our shoes for children are made with strictly hand-sewed welts.
